PREAMBLE

The faculty governance body of the School of Liberal Arts at Indiana University Indianapolis is the Faculty Assembly. The authority, responsibilities, and activities of the Faculty Assembly and its Officers will be governed by these Bylaws as adopted and amended by the Faculty Assembly.

ARTICLE I. THE FACULTY

Section 1. Membership of the Faculty

The Faculty of the School of Liberal Arts (henceforth, ‘the Faculty’) shall consist of

- a. all persons with full-time appointments or tenure in the School in the following non-visiting academic appointments, regardless of probationary status or rank: tenure-line, clinical- line, lecturer-line, research-line, academic specialists, and professors of practice; and
- b. any persons whose membership is ratified by majority vote of those present and voting at a regular meeting of the Faculty Assembly.

Section 2. Statement of Powers

These Bylaws confirm and establish in the Faculty the powers and duties herein specified.

Section 3. Certification of the Faculty

At the beginning of each academic year and as appointments occur, the Dean of the School of Liberal Arts (or their designee) shall communicate to the Officers of the Faculty Assembly the name, department, rank, and tenure status of each person receiving or holding a full-time academic appointment in the School of Liberal Arts.

ARTICLE II. LEGISLATIVE AUTHORITY OF THE FACULTY

Section 1. Legislative Authority

Legislative authority is defined as the power to establish both general and specific policies and to determine procedures for their implementation.

Section 2. General Authority of the Faculty

- a. The Faculty shall have the general power and responsibility to adopt policies, regulations, endorsements, and procedures intended to achieve the educational objectives of the School of Liberal Arts.
- b. Specifically, the Faculty is charged with the authority to confer degrees, to determine degree requirements, and to establish the conditions for the completion and the conferral of those degrees.

Section 3. Specific Legislative Authority

Without implied limitation on the general authority of the Faculty by failure of enumeration below, the Faculty shall have the legislative duties and responsibilities in the following areas as appropriate to the School of Liberal Arts:

- a. standards of admission and retention of students,
- b. determination of the curriculum,
- c. determination of faculty status,
- d. standards and procedures for faculty status,
- e. standards and procedures for faculty appointments,
- f. standards and procedures concerning faculty tenure and promotion,
- g. standards and procedures concerning faculty conduct and discipline,
- h. standards and procedures for the appointment and retention of academic administrative officers, and
- i. other educational policies of this School.

ARTICLE III. THE FACULTY ASSEMBLY

Section 1. Membership

Voting membership in the faculty shall be limited to those designated as “Faculty of the School of Liberal Arts.” (See Article I, Sec. 1.) The Faculty of the School of Liberal Arts may extend non-voting membership to anyone it deems appropriate for a period of one year. Non-voting membership includes the right to speak at meetings, but not the right to serve on the Assembly’s committees.

Section 2. Officers

The Officers of the Faculty Assembly shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, and up to four members of the Executive Committee elected at large. No more than two faculty members from the same department may serve as Officers simultaneously.

Section 2.a. Duties of the President

The duties of the President include the following:

1. Schedule and preside over meetings of the Faculty Assembly and the Executive Committee or designate someone as needed.
2. Represent faculty concerns to the Dean and Associate Deans, as necessary.
3. Attend Dean’s staff meetings as needed.
4. Attend and/or monitor monthly department chairs and directors meetings, as appropriate.
5. Approve minutes of Faculty Assembly meetings before they are distributed.
6. Work with the Executive Committee to fill any School committee positions that may become vacant during the year.
7. Ensure the currency of these Bylaws and propose amendments for the good of order.
8. Appoint a parliamentarian annually.
9. Work with the School webmaster to ensure currency and accuracy of the Faculty Assembly website.
10. Represent the Faculty at selected special events on campus (e.g., convocations) or designate someone as needed.
11. Perform other duties appropriate to that office or as requested by the Faculty.

Section 2.b. Duties of the Vice-President

The Vice-President shall assist the President with the aforementioned duties in Section 2.a. as determined by the President in consultation with the Executive Committee. This delegation will facilitate the transition from Vice-President to President of Faculty Assembly.

Section 2.c. Duties of the Secretary

The duties of the Secretary include the following:

1. Summarize in writing and record in any other appropriate manner the deliberations of the Faculty Assembly and the Executive Committee.
2. Submit to all members of the Faculty the minutes of each Faculty Assembly meeting with the agenda for the following meeting.
3. Distribute the agenda at least one week prior to each meeting.

4. Transmit to the Dean within seven days after a meeting all main actions approved by the Faculty Assembly. It is expected that the Dean respond in writing to those actions requested of that office within 30 days or prior to the next regularly scheduled meeting.
5. Distribute after the final meeting of each semester a Summary of Actions passed by the Faculty Assembly and record administrative action concerning such legislation.

Section 2.d. Term of Office

1. The President assumes the office after their term as Vice-President.
2. The Vice-President is elected for a one-year term. At the end of the academic year following their election, the Vice-President will assume the office of President for that year.
3. The Secretary is elected by the membership of the Faculty Assembly and serves a two-year term. The Secretary may be elected for two consecutive terms.
4. Members of the Executive Committee are elected by the Faculty to two-year terms; they may serve no more than two consecutive terms in the same office. At-large members should have staggered term of service.
5. Terms of office begin on August 1 and end on June 1 of the following year. Newly elected Officers need to be available immediately after the transition meeting scheduled at the end of the spring semester and through the summer as needed for consultation with the Dean's Office. The Dean may consult with the President and Vice-President regarding sensitive or urgent matters impacting the Faculty during the summer months of June and July.
6. After completing the allowed term of office, any officer may stand for election for the same office after two years.

Section 2.e. Method of Election

1. The Professional Development Committee shall prepare a slate of candidates for Officers who shall be submitted to the Assembly no later than the second meeting of the spring semester; at this time, the President shall call for additional nominations from the floor for each office.
2. For the regular election of Officers and committees, the Secretary shall organize the election to conclude the election in a timely manner so that results may be announced at the April meeting of the Assembly. Offices shall be filled by candidates receiving the plurality of votes.
3. For the regular election of Officers and committees, the Secretary shall be responsible for overseeing the preparation of the electronic ballots and timely distribution of ballot to all faculty members in order to conclude the election in the time frame as indicated in these Bylaws so that results can be announced at the April meeting of the Assembly. Secure electronic ballots are expressly authorized by these Bylaws. Any voting member may request a paper ballot from the Secretary of Faculty Assembly and must return the ballot to the Secretary by the end of the voting period.
4. Regular election results shall be announced at the April meeting of the Assembly. The new Officers shall assume advisory roles immediately thereafter and actual duties on August 1.

5. In the event that a special election is required to fill vacancies on the Executive Committee or elected committees during the academic year, a special election shall be held. At least two weeks must elapse between the distribution of ballots and the last date to submit ballots.

Section 2.f. Replacement of Officers

In the event that an Officer other than the President must be replaced, the Executive Committee shall make an effort to distribute the names of at least two faculty members to fill the unexpired term. If a meeting of the Assembly is scheduled during that month, the election will be held at that meeting via secure ballot. If no meeting is scheduled, the voting may be conducted asynchronously by a secure ballot. In the event that the President must be replaced, the Vice-President shall assume that position and a new Vice-President will be selected in accordance with the rules described above.

Section 2.g. Temporary Replacement of Officers

In the event that an Officer of the Executive Committee must be temporarily replaced (because he or she is on leave, is on sabbatical, or would otherwise be unable to carry out their duties for up to one semester), the Executive Committee may make a temporary appointment without resorting to an election. The name of the temporary appointee must be announced at the next scheduled Faculty Assembly or via email to the Faculty of the School.

Section 3. The Executive Committee

The Executive Committee shall consist of the President, the Vice-President, the Secretary, four faculty members elected at large, and the Dean of the School of Liberal Arts.

Section 3.a. Duties of the At-Large Members

The Executive Committee members elected at-large shall:

1. represent the Faculty in meetings of the Executive Committee;
2. be the ex-officio voting members of Faculty Assembly committees with the exception of the Promotion and Tenure Committee, and the Faculty Enhancement Committee;
3. submit to the Executive Committee an abstract of all substantive committee actions and any changes in a committee's operating procedures; and
4. carry out all other functions determined by the Assembly and the Executive Committee.

Section 3.b. Creating the Agenda

The Executive Committee determines agenda, and related agenda deadlines, for all meetings of the Faculty Assembly. The Executive Committee may receive suggested agenda items from elected and standing committees and from individual members of the Faculty. If any individual member of the Faculty obtains the signatures of 15 percent of the Faculty in support of a particular item, the Executive Committee must place the item on the agenda for the next scheduled meeting of the Assembly that allows for proper notice to the Faculty (Article III., Section 2.c.).

Section 3.c. Appointing Committees

The Executive Committee shall appoint all committees of the Faculty (as prescribed in Article IV, Sec. 2) except where otherwise designated.

Section 3.d. Communicating Decisions

The Executive Committee shall carry out the decision of the Faculty under the General policies or specific directives established by the Faculty Assembly, and shall transmit the decisions of the Faculty to the appropriate unit for implementation.

Section 3.e. Consulting with the Dean

The Dean may consult the Executive Committee as representatives of the Faculty on matters affecting the Faculty and School when it is not practical to consult the full Faculty Assembly.

Section 3.f. Identifying Committee Charges

With input from the Faculty, the Executive Committee will discuss and recommend charges to Faculty Assembly Committees, which, in part, shall be based on Committee reports from the previous year(s). Charges should be communicated in writing to the committees prior to 1 September each year.

Section 4. Meetings

Section 4.a. Regular Meetings

The President of the Assembly shall convene the Assembly at least two times during each fall and spring semester. At the first meeting of each fall semester, the Dean will be invited to comment on the State of the School and the President of the Assembly will introduce all new members of the faculty.

Section 4.b. Special Meetings

1. Special meetings of the Assembly may be called by the Executive Committee.
2. If any member of the Faculty obtains the signatures of 25 percent of the members of the Faculty in support of a special meeting, the Executive Committee must, within ten days of receiving the petition, call such a meeting of the Assembly to consider the proposed topic; notice of the meeting must be given at least three full working days in advance of the meeting.
3. The Executive Committee shall set the agenda for special meetings.

Section 5. Quorum

A quorum of the Faculty Assembly shall consist of at least 25 percent of the members.

Section 6. Voting

Section 6.a. Process

Unless specifically noted otherwise or determined by the Executive Committee, all proposals require for passage a simple majority of all Faculty present and voting.

Section 6.b. Ballots

Mail or electronic ballots may be used when approved by the Executive Committee; when required by these Bylaws, they must be used. Unless specifically noted in these Bylaws, such ballots shall require for passage a majority vote of all returned ballots.

Section 6.c. Proxy Voting

A proxy vote shall be permitted those Faculty members unable to attend meetings of the Assembly due to documented professional activities related to teaching, research, and service that are in conflict with that meeting.

1. Prior to its exercise, the proxy vote must be registered in writing via email at least 48 hours prior to the meeting with the Vice-President and Secretary of the Assembly, who will then present it for approval by a simple majority vote of the Executive Committee members. The Vice-President will announce the approved proxy votes at the meeting for inclusion in the Secretary's tally.
2. A proxy vote may not be used in the determination of a quorum.

Section 7. Place and Time of Meetings

The place, date, and arrangements for all regular meetings of the Faculty Assembly as outlined in Section 4.a shall be determined by the Executive Committee and distributed at least one week before the beginning of the fall semester.

Section 8. Due Notice

No regular meeting of the Faculty Assembly may be called unless all Faculty are notified by mail or electronic mail at least one week before the date of that meeting. Such notice shall consist of the agenda of that meeting with all details of those agenda items as can be distributed feasibly.

Section 9. Standing Rules

Standing Rules for conducting business of the Faculty Assembly may be adopted from time to time and be placed into the appropriate Standing Rules section. Standing Rules must be adopted, revised, or dropped by a majority of those present and voting. At the discretion of the Executive Committee, Standing Rules may be voted on by ballot.

ARTICLE IV. COMMITTEES OF THE FACULTY ASSEMBLY

Section 1. Role of the Committees

Committees shall be established as the working basis for the Faculty Assembly. They shall keep records of their work and, at the end of the academic year, shall submit written reports of their actions to the Executive Committee no later than May 31.

Section 2. General Provisions

Section 2.a. Request for Volunteers

By 15 April annually, the Professional Development Committee in conjunction with the Executive Committee shall make known to all Faculty members all committee vacancies, with the request that all members indicate the committee(s) on which they would prefer to serve.

Section 2.b. Number of Members

The number of committee members and their role is stipulated in the Membership section of each committee. However, individual committees may request additional members as needed to be named by the Executive Committee.

Section 2.c. Terms and Expectations

1. All standing committee appointments and elections shall be for two-year, staggered terms, except for the Professional Development Committee and the School representative to the campus Promotion and Tenure Committee for which the terms are three years. Terms begin 1 August each year.
  - Members of the Promotion and Tenure Committee are expected to be available to meet in person the first five Fridays after Labor Day each year.
2. All elected and appointed members of committees have a responsibility to ensure that the committee is able to do the best work possible to complete its charge. It is expected that members will attend at least 75 percent of meetings, and that they will participate fully in and take responsibility for making decisions on issues, policies, and other matters in their charge.
3. The Chair of each committee shall by June 1 annually review the members of their committee and their performance. Members should be reviewed as does not meet expectations, meets expectations, or exceeds expectations for each category (75% attendance; participation; completed work as assigned). Reports should be emailed to the Secretary of the Faculty Assembly or uploaded to the relevant digital platforms.
4. Should any elected or appointed member of a committee not be able to continue serving on a committee due to unforeseen circumstances, the member will inform the committee chair and the Executive Council and request a replacement. And in the event that a member does not regularly attend meetings and/or does not act in good faith to meet the expected responsibilities of membership on the committee, the committee, by majority vote, may make a formal request to the President and the Executive Committee to have that member replaced.
5. In the case of temporary inability to serve on a committee (e.g. a one-semester sabbatical, medical leave, etc.), the Executive Committee will have the ability to appoint a replacement member to serve. The Promotion and Tenure Committee and Professional Development Committees are the exception to this policy; in the case of temporary inability to serve on Promotion and Tenure or Professional Development, the Executive Committee will work in conjunction with the Professional Development Committee to identify a replacement.

Section 2.d. Limitations on Membership

As a guiding principle, every attempt should be made to ensure the greatest diversity of membership possible, in terms of independent programs, programs within departments, as well as balanced representation from the humanities and the social sciences.

Section 2.e. Student Members

The Executive Committee in conjunction with the Office of the Dean of Student Affairs and the Liberal Arts Student Council shall be asked to nominate student members for standing committees, although the Executive Committee is not limited to these nominations. Student members shall be selected by the Executive Committee, in consultation with individual committees, by 1 September each year. The inability of the Executive Committee to appoint interested and qualified students to these committee positions shall in no way inhibit the ability of the committee to function.

Section 2.f. Chairs

Each committee shall elect its chair and shall include administrative officers and students where appropriate or where specified below. Each committee shall report the name of the committee chair to the Secretary of the Executive Committee no later than September 15 annually.

Section 3. Elected Standing Committees

Section 3.a. Professional Development Committee

1. Charge. The Professional Development Committee shall:
  - a. help faculty anticipate and plan for promotion and career advancement.
  - b. provide individualized guidance, counsel, and performance evaluation to help faculty develop a fulfilling career or a change in work focus.
  - c. conduct required enhancement reviews of faculty members receiving evaluations of less than satisfactory (below 1 on the SLA Faculty Annual Review Form) in one or more areas of faculty work (teaching, research, or service) twice in any four-year period.
  - d. prepare slates of candidates:
    - for Executive Committee, for elected positions, and for all relevant campus-level councils, for presentation no later than second spring semester meeting of the Faculty Assembly;
    - to fill vacancies on the Executive Committee or elected positions between regular elections, slates of candidates for School representatives to the IU Indianapolis Faculty Council and IU Indianapolis Graduate Faculty Council (those individuals serving in IFC roles can also serve as the school's nominees for the University Faculty Council); and

- for other elections that may from time to time become necessary.
2. Membership. The Committee shall be composed of five elected members of the Faculty: at least three tenured faculty members at the rank of Associate Professor level or above, with at least one member at the rank of Professor and at least one member at the rank of Teaching Professor. The Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs will participate as a non-voting member of the committee.

Membership on the Committee consists of staggered three-year terms. In the case where someone from the same department as a committee member is referred for a required enhancement review, that committee member will recuse themselves and an alternative faculty member selected by the remaining members will participate in the review.

3. Standing Rules:

When performing required enhancement reviews:

- a. The Committee shall conduct a thorough evaluation of the faculty member and shall specify at the end of their review whether the faculty professional productivity is rated within one of the following categories:
  - some strengths, no deficiencies,
  - some strengths, some deficiencies (but deficiencies are not substantial or chronic), and
  - substantial chronic deficiencies.
- b. If substantial chronic deficiencies are found, the Committee and the faculty member shall work together to create a development plan. The plan becomes final once the faculty member, the Dean, and the department chair have signed the document. The plan should:
  - identify specific strengths that should be enhanced;
  - identify the specific deficiencies to be addressed;
  - define specific goals or outcomes that are needed to remedy the deficiencies;
  - outline the specific activities and programs that should be completed to achieve these goals and outcomes;
  - set appropriate timelines for the completion of these activities;
  - indicate appropriate benchmarks to be used in monitoring progress;
  - indicate the criteria for annual progress reviews; and
  - identify the source of any funding or institutional support, such as assigned time or new research equipment, based on discussions with the Dean, the Associate Dean for Research and/or the School's grant specialist.
- c. The Committee shall meet at least once per semester to review the faculty member's progress. In the case of Function 3b above, if the progress is not congruent with the specified timelines and benchmarks outlined in the development plan, the Committee will forward its recommendation to the Dean who shall notify the faculty member of the outcome of the review and remind the faculty member of the appeal process before proceeding with sanctions.
  - a. If substantial chronic deficiencies are found, the Committee and the faculty member shall work together to create a development plan. The plan becomes final once the faculty member, the Dean, and the department chair have signed the document. The plan should:

1. identify specific strengths that should be enhanced;
  2. identify the specific deficiencies to be addressed;
  3. define specific goals or outcomes that are needed to remedy the deficiencies;
  4. outline the specific activities and programs that should be completed to achieve these goals and outcomes;
  5. set appropriate timelines for the completion of these activities;
  6. indicate appropriate benchmarks to be used in monitoring progress;
  7. indicate the criteria for annual progress reviews; and
  8. identify the source of any funding or institutional support, such as assigned time or new research equipment, based on discussions with the Dean, the Associate Dean for Research and/or the School's grant specialist.
- b. The Committee shall meet at least once per semester to review the faculty member's progress. In the case of Function 3b above, if the progress is not congruent with the specified timelines and benchmarks outlined in the development plan, the Committee will forward its recommendation to the Dean who shall notify the faculty member of the outcome of the review and remind them of the appeal process before proceeding with sanctions.

Section 3.b. Promotion and Tenure Committee

1. Charge. The Promotion and Tenure Committee shall:
  - a. review each dossier forwarded in support of a candidacy for promotion or tenure. The Committee takes into account the recommendation of the primary committee and the Chair but makes its own recommendation. The Committee provides the Dean with a record of its vote(s) and a written review of the candidate.
  - b. conduct a School-level Three Year Review of tenure-track and clinical faculty members and provide them with a written assessment of their progress toward promotion and tenure. A copy of each assessment shall be provided to the faculty member's Chair and to the Dean.
  - c. at the Dean's request, assist in:
    - evaluating recommendations received from primary and search committees and Chairs concerning appointments and reappointment,
    - examining departmental review procedures.
  - d. ensure that the School P&T Guidelines meet campus and system requirements and recommend updates to the Faculty Assembly to keep them in line with IU Indianapolis P&T Guidelines.
2. Membership. The committee shall consist of seven tenured faculty members and two faculty members from the non-tenure (lecturer and clinical) lines, excluding full-time administrators, elected by the Faculty who shall serve staggered terms of two years. Every effort shall be made to ensure diversity of representation on this committee. A faculty member at the rank of Professor shall be elected by the Promotion and Tenure Committee in the spring from a slate of qualified faculty members from the School, prepared by the Professional Development Committee, to a renewable term of three years as the IU School of Liberal Arts representative to the IU Indianapolis campus Promotion and Tenure Committee. If not already a voting member of the Promotion and Tenure Committee elected by the faculty, the School representative elected by the committee shall also serve as a non-voting ex-officio member of the School Promotion and Tenure Committee.

- a. At least five of the tenured members of the committee should hold the rank of Professor. No more than one tenured member may be elected from the same disciplinary background, and no more than two from any department.
- b. Whenever possible, at least one of the non-tenure line faculty members should be at the rank of teaching professor or clinical professor. The two non-tenure line faculty shall be elected from different disciplinary backgrounds. These two non-tenure line faculty shall serve as voting members on the committee only to consider candidates seeking promotion in the non-tenure lines, as they are eligible depending on rank.
- c. Members may not vote for a candidate who is presenting themselves for a higher rank than the committee member or for tenure if they do not themselves have tenure.
- d. All members of the committee must recuse themselves from discussing and voting on candidates from their own disciplinary background, family members, or those presenting significant conflicts of interest.

3. Standing Rules:

- a. The Committee will carry out its prescribed responsibilities in accord with the most recent IU Indianapolis and School promotion and tenure guidelines.
- b. In carrying out these functions, however, the Committee shall respect the charges stated in the IU Indianapolis Faculty Guide and relevant IU Indianapolis and IU policies that constrain its purpose. To this end, the Committee:
  1. shall evaluate each recommendation of a primary committee and Department Chair to award or not to award tenure, and when requested by the Dean, may review a recommendation of a primary committee and Department Chair with regard to annual appointment or non-reappointment. In either case, the following criteria shall be taken into account:
    - a. whether the recommendation in question is based on adequate peer review;
    - b. whether, especially in the case of a recommendation of non-reappointment, all rights of the faculty member in question have been safeguarded in accordance with university-established procedures in this regard;
    - c. whether a candidate for tenure shows strong promise of achieving promotion to the rank of Associate Professor; and
    - d. whether the recommendation in question takes into account the academic mission in support of which the candidate has been hired and with respect to which their expectations have been formed and contributions rendered;
  2. shall follow established campus and school guidelines and procedures should their recommendations for tenure or promotion be contrary to that of the primary committee or Chair. After evaluating the dossier and the recommendations of the primary committee, Department Chair, and Promotion and Tenure Committee, the Dean will make an independent recommendation; they shall provide copies of the Promotion and Tenure

Committee's and their recommendations to the candidate, chair, and primary committee. In all cases the separate, written recommendations of the primary committee, the chair, the Promotion and Tenure Committee, and the Dean will be forwarded to the Provost; and

3. shall examine departmental review procedures when so requested by the Dean, or, with notice to the Dean, by any probationary appointee or by any other member of the department concerned, and shall report its findings to the Dean.

Section 4. Appointed Standing Committees

The committees named in this section shall be appointed by the joint Executive Committees before the end of the spring semester. As noted in Section 2.b.3 above, if a committee member is unable to complete his or her term of appointment, the Executive Committee shall appoint another faculty member to complete the term. If a committee member fails to attend regularly scheduled meetings or to participate in the committee's work, the committee, by majority vote, may request the Executive Committee to replace the member.

Section 4.a. Academic Affairs Committee

1. Charge. The Academic Affairs Committee shall:
  - a. apply to individual cases the existing policies of Indiana University, IU Indianapolis, and the School of Liberal Arts with regard to admission, dismissal, re-admission, and grade changes;
  - b. recommend to the Curriculum Committee modifications or clarifications of these policies in the light of its experience;
  - c. recommend policies on the evaluation of teaching and advising to the Faculty Assembly;
  - d. develop activities for the improvement of teaching and advising within the School;
  - e. select recipients of teaching awards;
  - f. serve as a resource on teaching and advising issues related to in-person, hybrid, and online classes to individual faculty, departments, programs, and administration of the School of Liberal Arts;
  - g. provide information to relevant committees and Dean related to online education that has implications for any policy changes, curriculum revisions, or to the review of new courses or programs;
  - h. address issues related to technology and technical facilities and services raised by faculty, students and departments and academic units; and
  - i. advise the Dean on policies, procedures and planning in the use of technology in the School.
2. Membership. The Committee shall be composed of eight members:
  - a. five faculty members,
  - b. a designated Executive Committee representative,
  - c. a non-voting School administrative officer designated by the Dean, and
  - d. a student.

Section 4.b. Budget and Resource Planning Committee

1. Charge. The Budget and Resource Planning Committee shall:
  - a. serve as the primary deliberative body of the faculty in terms of academic planning, resource allocation, and budgetary advising;
  - b. assist the Dean in the assessment of funding requests and other matters of resource allocation from departments, programs, and faculty, thus contributing towards the establishment of academic and financial priorities for the School; and
  - c. every fifth year, review the most recent long-range plan of the School and develop a new plan if circumstances warrant, in consultation with the Dean.
2. Membership. The Committee shall be composed of the following members:
  - a. five faculty members, appointed by the Executive Committee and chosen in consultation with the Dean,
  - b. a designated Executive Committee representative, and
  - c. a non-voting School financial officer designated by the Dean.

Section 4.c. Community Outreach and Public Engagement Committee

1. Charge. The Community Outreach and Public Engagement Committee, a student- and public-facing committee, shall:
  - a. help publicly promote scholarship, academic programs, and liberal arts values;
  - b. work with appropriate university offices in identifying marketing and branding strategies focused specifically on the School of Liberal Arts; and
  - c. advise and assist in building the reputation of the School to increase majors and promote donations, scholarships, and sponsorships.
2. Membership: The Committee shall be composed of six members:
  - a. three faculty members,
  - b. a designated Executive Committee representative,
  - c. a non-voting School administrative officer designated by the Dean, and
  - d. a student.

Section 4.d. Diversity and Inclusion Committee

1. Charge. The Diversity and Inclusion Committee shall serve as the primary body working to create and update the School's Diversity plan. The Committee will also:
  - a. define and work on ongoing efforts regarding diversity and inclusion within the School of Liberal Arts;
  - b. prepare and analyze reports to monitor our success (in compliance with campus policies, initiatives, and reporting);
  - c. provide oversight and planning for annual diversity training opportunities and education; and
  - d. identify and/or nominate SLA faculty and staff who qualify for school-, campus-, and university-wide diversity awards.
2. Membership. The Committee shall be composed of seven members:
  - a. three faculty members,
  - b. a designated Executive Committee representative,
  - c. a non-voting School administrative officer designated by the Dean,
  - d. a staff member, and
  - e. a student.

Section 4.e. Faculty Affairs and Research Committee

1. Charge. The Faculty Affairs and Research Committee shall:
  - a. consider questions, policies, procedures, and cases concerning conditions of faculty employment, professional conduct, and professional rights and responsibilities;
  - b. oversee certain School awards, including the following: Outstanding Faculty, E.F. Byrne Peace and Global Justice, and Faculty Medal of Distinction student awards. Guidelines for these awards shall be announced annually by the Committee;
  - c. advise the Associate Dean for Research and the Faculty on matters related to research and research funding in the School including, but not limited to:
    - investment of funds to promote research;
    - review of proposals for School grant funds;
    - review of sabbatical applications; and
    - policy development regarding research activity and integrity.
2. Membership:
The Committee shall consist of:
  - five full-time faculty members, three of whom have significant involvement in research activity,
  - a designated Executive Committee representative, and
  - the Associate Dean for Faculty Affairs and/or the Associate Dean for Research, depending on committee agenda, participating as non-voting School administrative officers (by majority vote of committee members, non-voting members may be excused from certain committee deliberations).

Section 4.f. Curriculum Committee

1. Charge. The Curriculum Committee provides faculty oversight for curriculum, and academic policies and standards for both undergraduate and graduate curriculum. The committee shall:
  - a. review and develop specific recommendations for the Assembly on academic policies and standards;
  - b. approve new courses;
  - c. recommend to the Assembly the approval of new majors, minors, programs, degrees, and certificates; and
  - d. review and recommend to the Assembly as appropriate courses, majors, minors, programs, degrees or certificates to be significantly revised, dropped, or suspended.
2. Membership. The Committee shall be composed of eight members:
  - a. five faculty members, including representation from those with experience teaching graduate courses,
  - b. a designated Executive Committee representative,
  - c. a non-voting School administrative officer designated by the Dean, and
  - d. a student.

Section 5. Ad Hoc Committees

The President of the Faculty Assembly may appoint ad-hoc committees in consultation with the Dean and the Executive Committee. Such committees expire at the completion of their assigned tasks, or at the end of the academic year, whichever comes first. If the committee's charge has not been fulfilled by the end of the academic year, the next President may reappoint the committee in consultation with the Dean and the Executive Committee.

Section 6. Evaluation of Committee Service

At the end of the school year, no later than May 15, the chair of each committee shall send a letter to each member of the committee evaluating that member's service to the committee during the year. The member of the Executive Committee who serves as liaison to each committee shall send a similar letter to the chair of the committee evaluating the chair's service. Committees without such liaisons, such as the Promotion & Tenure Committee or the Enhancement Review Committee, shall select two committee members to evaluate the chair's service.

ARTICLE V. THE AMENDING PROCESS

Section 1. Proposal

Amendments to these Bylaws may be proposed by any member of the Faculty or by any committees thereof.

Section 2. Direction

All proposed amendments shall be directed to the Executive Committee and placed on the agenda for the next scheduled meeting of the Assembly that allows for proper notice to the Faculty (Article III., Section 2.c.).

Section 3. Voting on Bylaw Amendments

Proposed amendments that have been distributed to the Faculty at least one week prior to the meeting may be adopted after discussion by a majority vote of those present and voting.

Section 4. Suspension of a Bylaw

Any Bylaw may be suspended without due notice by unanimous consent of the Faculty Assembly during any regular or special meeting. Such suspension shall be used only when an exigency of time precludes the normal processes above.

ARTICLE VI. THE PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the latest edition of ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER, NEWLY REVISED, shall govern the Faculty Assembly in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws, any special rules the Faculty Assembly may adopt, or any rules of a superior academic body.
